

ADP Integration

Litmos' ADP integration brings together a comprehensive HR system with a first-rate learning solution to help employees learn the easy way. In just a matter of minutes, thousands of your employees in ADP can be provisioned into Litmos and assigned a variety of course libraries, thereby putting training in the flow of work. Employees receive instant access to a modern learning dashboard that displays mandatory training, recommended courses, popular courses, and categories of training topics. An intuitive course builder and a complete suite of packaged courses gives businesses the power to solve training challenges quickly and painlessly.
