Compt

Easily build and streamline flexible perk stipends.

Compt is a perk management and rewards software designed to help companies offer inclusive and meaningful support to all employees, while reducing administrative burden on HR. Whether your goal is to add variety to perk offerings to better support a diverse and remote team, consolidate existing perks into one powerful platform, or simplify the perks administration process, Compt is a perks solution built for HR, by HR, using flexible stipends to maximize the impact of your perk programs.

Unify and simplify your perks management process.

With Compt's perk stipends, you can effortlessly consolidate your dispersed perks into one easy-to-use and IRS-compliant platform, making it an ideal solution to manage all of your existing perks or as a supplemental add-on for a personalized employee experience.

Choose a stipend (or several) that best suits your teams' need.

Select from individual stipends like Health & Wellness, Remote Work, Learning & Development, Meal, Equipment, or build a custom program. The options for perk programs are unlimited.

Increase employee engagement with a vendorless platform.

Compt is a vendorless platform, which means there is no restrictive catalogue to constantly manage or review. From online businesses to local shops, empowering your people to self-select and control their perks makes them so much more invested. They really do love it: On average, 96% of employees activate their account and 81% of employees are active on Compt¹!

Help reduce administrative burden on HR and finance.

Compt manages all the personal spending information for HR and employees so that everyone can independently check their balances, submit perks receipts and track their spending — which means less time spent answering questions and reconciling balances. Plus, monitoring usage and reimbursing employees is as simple as a few clicks, saving your team time to focus on other initiatives that help your people.
