Quinyx

Help manage and optimize your workforce.

Quinyx is a powerful workforce management platform for enterprise businesses to manage and optimize their workforce, improve their bottom line and keep employees engaged. Quinyx helps companies save time, reduce costs, communicate with their workforce, and engage with employees through best-in-class web and mobile applications.

Streamline your time, scheduling, tasks and more.

Quinyx provides unmatched flexibility and automation, allowing labor forecasting, optimized scheduling and actionable insights. Quinyx offers limitless scheduling flexibility for comprehensive coverage across your entire organization, regional or global. Create optimized schedules to match your business practices and view schedules for a single day or longer periods for planning.

Intelligently forecast your labor demand.

Don't miss out on any occasions to positively impact your business's performance. With AI-powered forecasting, producing optimized scheduling, Quinyx helps ensure organizations have a competitive advantage by predicting labor demand based on their unique business drivers.

Easily track time and attendance.

No matter how unique or complex the rules around your workforce, Quinyx helps you manage time and attendance effortlessly through integrated time reporting, absence management and employee punch-in. Help simplify compliance, reduce labor costs, improve efficiency and eliminate errors.

Help recognize, reward and engage your staff.

Use real-time surveys to help identify trends and challenges in your workforce before issues occur. Help positively impact employees' morale and engagement by enabling them to communicate more efficiently. Employees can see their schedules and time approvals, punch in and out, and bid or take on extra shifts, ultimately giving them more say over their work-life balance.
