

Empower learning across the enterprise with the SAP Litmos ADP integration

SAP Litmos' ADP integration brings together a comprehensive HR system with a first-rate learning solution to help employees learn the easy way. In just a matter of minutes, thousands of your employees in ADP can be pushed into SAP Litmos and assigned a variety of course libraries, putting training just one click away. Employees receive instant access to modern learning dashboard that displays recommended courses, popular courses, and categories of training topics. An intuitive course builder and a complete suite of packaged courses gives businesses the power to solve training challenges quickly and painlessly.

Business value

Instantly assign training courses to any and all employees across the enterprise

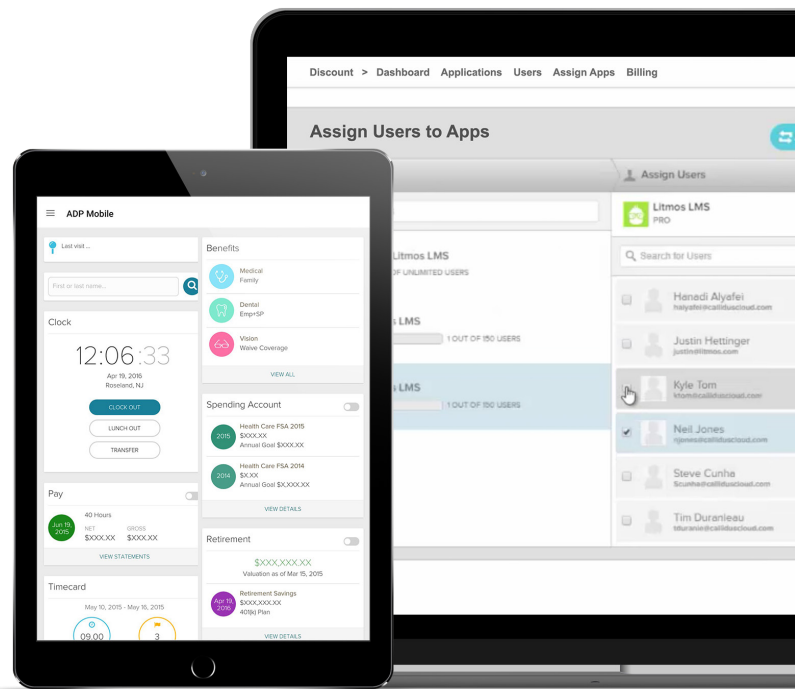

Easily monitor and satisfy compliance trainings to meet regulations

Align employee aptitudes and skills across product and functional department

Reduce variable costs and liabilities tied to timely, incomplete and ineffective education

Functional Features

Bulk provision employees from ADP into SAP Litmos as Learners

Easily create and oversee learning programs for various training initiatives

Automatically update Learner profiles with the latest ADP employee information

Rapidly assemble reports to gather compliance and completion metric

Supply single sign-on access to SAP Litmos through the ADP Marketplace

Provide pre-built content packages to teams of employees

“One of the things we like is that we can integrate SAP Litmos easily. Single sign-on will be very important as the company continues to expand its users and use eLearning for customer certification.
