

Pay Access with Immediate

Pay access gives companies and their teams the ability to move money where needed when needed.

From allowing employees to access their earned pay to handling last-minute off-cycle payments, companies should not have to navigate complicated processes to manage these tasks. Need to distribute last-minute gift cards to your team for the holidays? No problem.

Want to recognize an employee for outstanding performance? It's just a click away. For those needing to distribute tips, you can easily go cashless and ensure tax compliance.
